Last call for lunch checks. Pat Martin gets her supply from Bob Ritchie.

Measuring up to a graduate is Wayne Wehrle.
Official ruler, Lee Farwig.

Morning news at the locker. Rosalie Ziegelmeyer, Peggy Jacobs and Yvonne Frederick exchange the latest news.

SCHOOL LIFE

Just watch. He'll expect us to have our homework finished.

"Tarde," let's see. Give me time; I'll find it here.

Tell Don back there he's wanted in the office.

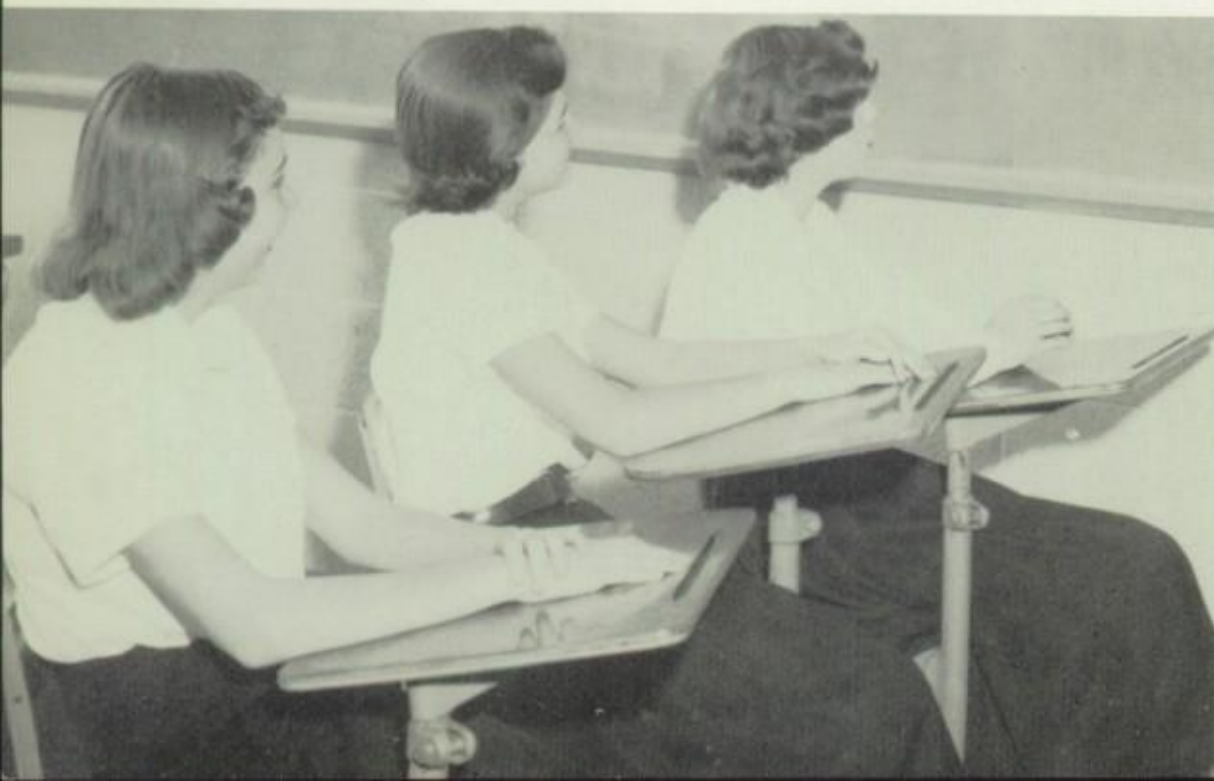

But Dad, I'm too big for a whipping. I'll have a better report card next time, honest, I will.

Simple. I can answer that with my eyes closed.

1:10 p. m.
In 1066 the Normans caumonz,
aumuzz auzzzz zzzz zz z.

PLEASURE. No books, no work!
Who said DB was rough?

Don't be a joker. I didn't fail that test.

Mmm. 15 times .038xy
to the 5th power under the radical -- now how can that be?

But the girls might laugh at me.

Tomorrow and tomorrow
and tomorrow creeps...

Could that be a wisdom
tooth?

And if he comes home with another report card like that I'll really take care of him.

Oh dear, I didn't know fudge had that many calories.

Everyone else went home 35
minutes ago, Gene.

But if I got
to go to jug, I'll miss my bus.

Carroll Cunningham, secretary, gets a chance to talk instead of writing. Don Gunther, vice-president; Ed Reinagel, president; and Bob Sinak, treasurer, listen to the wise suggestion.
